The Raleigh Park Voice is published quarterly by the Raleigh Park Neighborhood Association through generous contributions from the friends and neighbors of Raleigh Park.

Bring your family, a lawn chair or a blanket, and meet your neighbors and friends for a summer evening of fun and music on August 23th. The Tualatin Hills Park & Recreation District, with the help of the Raleigh Park Neighborhood Association (RPNA), will hold a free concert. Our own Raleigh Park has again been selected to host one of these very special events! Mark your calendar for Thursday August 23th from 6 to 8 PM. Freak Mountain Ramblers will be providing the music (for more information <http://www.thprd.org/events/event.cfm?id=270>). The Freak Mountain Ramblers play a style described as hybrid of rock 'n roll, bluegrass, alternative country and country-blues. Deeply rooted in Portland's alternative music scene for decades, the Freaks have cultivated a loyal following with a high-energy stage show. The music starts at 6 pm and will finish at 8 pm. Food and beverages will be available for purchase, or bring your own picnic. Seating is on the grass; beach/sand chairs or blankets for seating are encouraged. Regular height lawn chairs will be asked to move to the side or rear.

For more information or questions regarding the "Concert in the Park," contact Debra Fife, Coordinator of Volunteer Services and Special Events for the Tualatin Hills Parks and Recreation District. Her phone number is 503-645-6433; you can reach by email at dfife@thprd.com.
